

Let the Leaves Bring Change

A WISER, SAFER CHOICE!

Installing Coolers

As the seasons change so does the retail market. Stores do resets and change their merchandise to accommodate for the different temperatures.

Some stores put out beach chairs and coolers while others use the opportunity to sell different types of seasonal foods. My personal favorite is the square marshmallows for smores. One particular customer of ours decided to add a little refreshment to their locations.

Northstar was recently contracted out to install circuits for soda coolers. We completed this project in about half a dozen stores. Some stores even had multiple circuits installed.

In each store we were to run a dedicated 20 amp circuit from the panel to the end cap which was going to draw the power for the soda cooler. The electricians had to use a scissor lift to run the conduit and wires from the panel to the outlet due to the height of the ceilings. The locations for the coolers were previously mapped out by their corporate, so the techs had to be sure to run the circuit to the precise location.

Fall Fragrances

As the leaves start to change and the cool weather rolls in, we end up keeping our homes closed up. To get a fresh and natural feel you can make these air fresheners at home.

Mason Jar Oil Candle Lamp

Materials:

- ◆ Mason Jars with Lid
- ◆ 1-1/8 Nipple
- ◆ 2-1/8 Couplings
- ◆ 2-3/8 in Washers
- ◆ Lamp Wicks, 100% Cotton (if you are feeling adventurous you could make your own out of a 100% cotton t-shirt)
- ◆ Olive Oil
- ◆ Pine Cones, Cranberries, Fruit (like Lemons, Limes, Oranges, Coffee Beans, Vanilla Beans) and Fresh Herbs such as Rosemary.

Tools:

- ◆ Scissors
- ◆ Cordless Drill with 3/8 Drill Bit (or large screw driver and hammer)
- ◆ Block of scrap wood

Instructions:

Start by filling the mason jars with your botanicals, This could be your pine cones, fruit. Don't stuff them too full you will need room for your wick.

Using a wooden skewer or a pencil, position the plant material where it looks the best.

At this point add in your oil. You can also add in essential oils if you would like to enhance the fragrance. Add your wick in as well.

If you decide you would like to make this decorative and functional Mason Jar Oil Candle Lamp you can find more information here:
